Message from the President

Setting the Table for Diverse Communities

Our family has certain chores. Does yours? One is setting thetable. There’s not a set schedule on who does this, it mostly depends on whichchild is closest when it’s time to be done. So whichever one gets theassignment, they are responsible for getting plates, napkins, and silverwarefor each person. Ever thought about why we do this? The theme of the 2018Planned Giving Symposium made me contemplate this.
